A TIME TO SOCIALIZE AROUND THE BEAUTIFUL BLED LAKE

Written by Fancy and Jade

In the free time, as a brain refresher one of our outdoor activities was taking a walk around the beautiful Bled Lake. Students could take a break from their hard work and socialise with each other.

MOST UNIQUE OUTFITS OF THE DAY!!

Okay, let's be real the most delegates showed up in the classic MUN uniform: black suits, white shirts, and ties. But these four? They understood the assignment and gave us fashion.

First up, our two girls, who absolutely nailed colour coordination. Their outfits were so put-together, they could've been planned by a stylist. If diplomacy was judged on aesthetics, they'd already have world peace sorted.

Then we have the guy who said, what tie? While all other guys went for the standard tie, he rocked a bow tie instead, a little like James Bond flair.

And finally, the best person at standing out: the only delegate who dared to ditch the black suit and show up in beige. While everyone else played it safe, he pulled up looking like he was about to close a million-dollar deal.
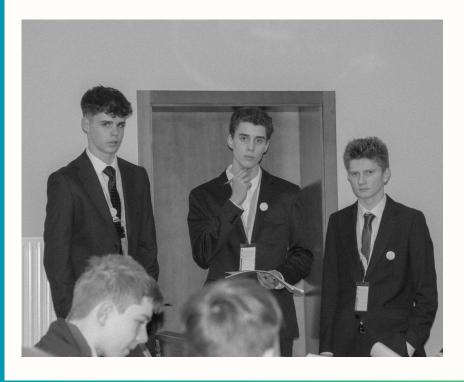

GOSSIP🤭🤫

Things are getting interesting in the AI in Warfare committee! Rumor has it that Iran and Pakistan are teaming up and trying to get other countries on their side against Israel. They're even looking at North Korea, China, and the USA to join them. Will this new alliance last, or will things get messy?

According to secret sources from the Animal Testing Committee, Israel might propose another resolution with Brazil. There are also rumours that Austria will be joining this new resolution. Another point that was found in the gossip box, is the delegate of Isreal's ability to make inspiring speeches which greatly impressed the other delegates
